

NATIONAL IMPROVEMENT FRAMEWORK – NUMERACY

30 MAY 2018 – RADISSON BLU, EDINBURGH

DATE 30 MAY 2018

VENUE Radisson Blu, Edinburgh

OVERVIEW Providing delegates with an updated overview of the national perspective on numeracy with sessions on the various innovative approaches taken by different schools on achieving improved results and using numeracy across the curriculum

TARGET AUDIENCE All teachers with an interest in improving numeracy within their school

PROGRAMME

09.00 – 09.30

REGISTRATION

09.30 – 09.40

Welcome & Introduction

Eileen Young, Professional Learning Manager SLS

09.40 – 10.40

Session 1: The Importance of Numeracy

Maureen McKenna, Executive Director of Education Services, Glasgow City Council
Chair of 'Making Maths Count'.

10.40 – 11.10

COFFEE

11.10 – 12.10

Session 2: Improving Literacy Levels across the School in a practical sense

Innes MacLeod, Faculty Leader of Numeracy, Wallace High School

12.10 – 13.10

Session 3 – Innovative approaches to teaching and assessing Numeracy outside the Maths Department

Paul McLaughlan, HT St Ninian's High School, Kirkintilloch

13.10 – 14.10

LUNCH

14.15 – 15.15

Session 4

Heather Reid OBE Meteorologist & Education Consultant

15.10 – 15.30

Open Forum